SOLIDARITY COCKTAIL

MASAI MARA

8

Spicy sweet drink.

Collaborate with us through a version of the African classics. A cocktail made with rum, ginger and the special touch of hibiscus flower.

Who are they?

The Maasai tribe is one of the best-known African peoples in the West.

They have a reputation as brave warriors who kept slavers at bay and challenged early explorers.

A town of proud shepherds who have refused to abandon their traditional way of life, but who today are forced to fight to preserve their identity and what remains of their lands.

All money will go back to the association.
